

Earthquake
Antioch was destroyed

115 AD

Rome was troubled by widespread revolts in many parts of Asia and Asia Minor, the Jews, led by the teacher
AKIBA and the intrepid soldier, BAR KOKHABA (BAR KOKBA), rose with other rebel peoples.

The rebels were put down by TRAJAN
& HADRIAN. THE province was renamed Syria Palaestina. Jews were forbidden on pain of death, ever again to set foot in Jerusalem.

Only on the ninth of Ab, the traditional anniversary of the destruction of the TEMPLE could Jews pay for the right to weep
on the site of the old sanctuary

115AD

DURANT

SORANUS of Ephesus, physician

115-117

Jas Heid

Revolt of the Jews in Egypt

C115

Jen Heid

Death of Samarial II in Euz Israel

115-117 AD

In AD 115-117AD a widespread revolt of the far-flung Jewish Diaspora throughout the near and middle east radically upset Trajan's plans for eastern conquests

115-125

The Pope, St. Sixtus I
Rome, martyr

To him is ascribed the insertion of the three fold Sanctus in the mass

Jewish revolts against Roman rule in Cyrene, north Africa ~~the~~ was severely punished by Emperor Trajan.

115 A.D.

Devastating earthquake at Antioch

Trojan crossed the TIGRIS

115/114

Trojan extended operations southward into northern Mesopotamia & in a spectacular campaign in 116 succeeded in capturing the whole of Mesopotamia including the Parthian capital at CTRESIPITON (near modern BAGDAD.)

115 AD

ST. SIXTUS I, POPE

115

Invasion of Mesopotamia
by the Romans.